President Smith, of Federation, Declares Duty of Labor to Drive Out Unloyal.

(Special to The News.)
Memphis, Jan. 8.—T. A. Smith, of Graysville, president of the Tennessee Federation of Labor, told delegates at the opening of the annual convention of the federation here that labor's chief duty at the present time was to "exterminate the damnable, dirty traitors who our cities, our homes and our very beings."

"There are more traiters right here in Tennessee and in all parts of the United States right now than there are in all of the central powers," Mr. Smith declared. "Labor has many duties to perform, but the one that stands out above them all is to drive out the uning our homes, our men and boys, our own people."

The convention cheered these remarks and a resolution adopting a campaign against traitors was unanimously adopted amid a great demonstration. The convention will last through three days. A keen contest for offices is in progress

GIGANTIC TASK OF CLEARING STREETS

Snow Drifted in Banks Higher Than Man's Head-More Snow Predicted.

Chicago, Jan. 8,-Snowbanks that a map can't see over lay on the downtown streets today, thirty-six hours after the record-breaking blizzard which swept the middle west last Sunday had ceased.

The task of removing the big snow-drifts is so freat that 2,500 men and nearly a thousand teams have made little progress; although the work was continued through the night. Many trains arrived behind time today but railroad officials say that con-ditions were improved and that practically normal schedules both in senger and freight service would resumed tomorrow unless a further snowfall intervenes. The weather bu-reau, however, has forecast more snow tonight or tomorrow for Iillinois, Michigan and parts of Wisconsin and Iowa -the territory most seriously affected by the storm.

INTEREST CENTERS IN GERMANS' REPLY

Bolsheviki Test of Annexation Attitude Throws Country Into Political Turmoil.

London. Jan. 8.—A reply from the central powers to the statement of British war aims made by Premier Lloyd George Saturday is awaited here with the greatest interest. It is besome form and to make the reply more straightforward and definite than any previous statement of their aims.

But if the German papers correctly mirror the situation there, the test which the bolsheviki have made of Germany's attitude toward the principle of no annexations has thrown Germany into political turmoil. Advices from the capitals of neutral countries bordering on Germany show that the opinion prevalent there is that one of the most severe national crises in the history of Germany is developing as a result of the difference of views between the militarist and non-

Von Ludendorf, as leader of the former such views as those advanced by men of the type of Dr. Von Kuehlmann and Count Czernin, the German and Austrian foreign ministers.

At the same time the view of Von Kuehlmann and Czernin fail to satisfy the German socialists, who regard their middle-of-the-road policy as tricky and who also are determined that the spirit of the reichstag reso-lution must be followed and without qualification or reserve.

Neutral observers declare that the gap between the German parties suddenly has become a chasm so wide that there is little hope of bridging it and that the development of an internal crisis of serious proportions seem inevitable

Entente United in Aims On the other hand it is pointed out that the various parties in entente countries never appeared so completely united as in their support of the war aims formulated by Premier Lloyd

EXPECTS TO RATIFY PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

South Carolina General Assembly Meets for Most Important Session.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 3 .- The South Carolina general assembly began to-day what was expected to be one of the most important sessions in its his-tory. To help win the war is declared by members to be the special object of the assembly, and it is expected numerous measures bearing on South Carolina's participation will be considered early in the session.

Efforts will be made during the session to pass a "bone-dry" law, a substitute for the present law, which permits an individual to receive not more than one quart of liquor a month, it is taid, and it also is expected that rati-fication of the federal prohibition amendment will be considered.

One of the first steps toward "war" legislation will be the consideration of a bill prepared by the state council of defense, incorporating the council, providing for investigations in emergencies and appropriating $50,000 to meet any expenses. Other matters to be considered include suffrage, revision of the election laws, conservation legislation, appropriations and salaries state officers.
While Gov. Manning and members of both houses of the assembly have uel shortage, it is believed the entire forty days allowed by law will be required to carry out the full program

Chattanooga People Tell How:

LONG STREET

Mrs. S. E. Baird, 407 Long street, says. "I was in misery with my back. I could hardly sit up and was in pain all the time. The kidney secretions were un-natural. Mornings, I felt all tired out. I used numerous medicines, but wasn't benefited until I got Doan s Kidney Pills at Miller's Drug Store. They cured the attack." (Statement given January 18, 1911.) OVER FIVE YEARS LATER, Mrs. Baird added: "Doan's Kidney Pills always relieve me when I have any signs of kidney trouble. I often recommend them."

PROSPECT STREET

J. A. Brown, city fireman, Sixth and Prospect streets, gave the following statement, Dec. 8, 1914: "I suffered a great deal with my kidneys. The trouble first began with my back aching and the kidney secretions were highly colored. At times my right kidney seemed to swell up. The kidney secretions burned in passage and pained terribly. I began to pass gravel stones, also. Doan's Kidney Pills always gave me relief from attacks of the trouble." On July 5, 1916, Mr. Brown added: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and they keep my kidneys in good order."

WEST TWENTY-SIXTH STREET

Joe Denton, carpenter, 16 West Twenty-sixth street, "For quite awhile, the kidney secretions were highly colored and contained sediment. I tried different medicines but they did me no good and I was discouraged and hardly knew what to do. Doan's Kidney Pills, however cured me." (Statement given Dec. On July 4, 1916, Mr. Denton said: "I still use and recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. I am always glad to tell others how good they are."

WILLIAMS STREET

Mrs. H. F. Anchors, 618 Williams street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several times and they have proven to be a medicine worth recommending. my back has been weak and sore. Blurred sight and dizzy spells have been common and I have had a constant, dull pain in the small of my back, too. Doan's Kidney Pills have always helped me."

GREENWOOD STREET

Mrs. W. M. Wolfe, 701 Greenwood street, says: "My kidneys were weak and acted irregularly. I felt rundown and I tired easily. My kidneys acted too often at times and then again were sluggish. I had sharp catches across my kidneys, too. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the Live & Let Live Drug Co., and they relieved me of all symptoms of kidney trouble."

EAST SEVENTEENTH STREET

J. W. Martin, 1507 E. Seventeenth street, says: "I couldn't straighten my oack and it ached all the time, making it impossible for me to rest at night. I couldn't do any work that required stooping or lifting. My kidneys acted irregularly, too, and I was allin. A friend recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and I got a supply from Strong Bros.'
